EVENTS AND MY NEWS FLASHES

"FUR SHUI®"

"Fur Shui"™ An Introduction to Animal Feng Shui.

The Tour de Fur is now going to April of 2010. So many folks are enjoying the party, that it has been extended! Last month's chakra read winners have not collected their prizes...along with a few others out there who have passed on the book. It's the holidays, but let me know where the book is, who you are, and collect your prizes! Check out the Tour blog at <http://furshui.blogspot.com> for new locations and fun.

Margaret's dog Vida "checks in" for her chakra read. She and others just loved their special energetic treats!

"Fur Shui" made appearances at Dexter's Deli for two loving days this past Nov. 14 & 15. Dexter's and I team up to give an extra "boost" to a chosen charity. Two days of on-site discounted chakra reads bring lots of fur folks into Dexters for some fun and charity. This year's event was a big success with funds going to the worthy cause of "Give Some Life", a free / low cost spay and neuter

org. that educates and trains local vets in Baja, Mexico. Go see what they do at: www.givesomelife.org

WHERE?

Love the "creatures"!

Had a great time with the "gals" at Queen Califa's Magic Circle in Escondido, CA recently. Sculptor / Artist Niki de Saint Phalle designed this as her very last of her 4 sculpture environments that is free to all who wish to admire and grow their imagination.

Fantasmagoric animals, totems, beasts and people make up this mosaic environment. Queen Califa was an Amazon warrior from whom the state of California is named. She ruled over a kingdom of gold and riches. In this garden she is surrounded by her "courtiers" who represent animals and elements in her kingdom. In SoCal, a place well worth exploring! Just go to Kit Carson Park, Escondido, CA!

November news...check it out in December's Fido Friendly!

You are invited to pick up a copy of Fido Friendly for Dec. There's a new column called Crate and Garden on page 34, which for this special 40th special edition I was asked to contribute an article on Feng Shui for man's best friend! Fido Friendly supports our dog fur folks travel, health and well being...a great magazine...check them out online at: www.fidofriendly.com to subscribe.

Here's a holiday Fur Shui tip for Fido from me...posted in Fido Friendly / Crate and Garden column:

GREY is the color of the Travel and Helpful People life space, with metal being this gua's element. Add the color gray (silver for you Hollywood types) to your holiday travels. A gray-tone bed, blanket, carrier or just a gray or silver ribbon attached to a crate or collar will help bring extra harmony for your pet and just the right "helpful people" to assist your travels. Be sure to provide a non-spill metal water dish so pets can fill-up neatly with helpful energy. Wherever you go this season, attract joy and ease of travel by putting a silver bell on your dog's collar. Let your fur-helpful person attract both good cheer and some nice holiday help by adding a silver or gray collar and leash. Ring in the holidays with Fur Shui silver bells and good cheer with your fur loves!

A little bit of December Holiday happenings at the San Diego Zoo!

November's Speak is again a bit late...but to your advantage, now there is December news to share about "Jungle Bells" from December 12- January 2. There will be holiday lights adorning the zoo activity areas, special bell choir performances and many neat things to see and do...zoo open late to see all the pretty lights! Go to the zoo site at: <http://www.sandiego-zoo.org> If you can be in SoCal...this is a great place to enjoy the holiday with some wild fur folks. You can even "adopt" an animal as a gift for someone or yourself. See you there!

Rocky the guru cat says: "Holiday time is here, bundle up and have some good cheer!"
