

"Nature does not hurry, yet everything is accomplished." Lao Tzu

Just back from my trip to Italy, rain, sun, etc. all wrapped up in the warmth of the Italian people who send to you all a hearty "Salve" from their lovely country. Happy beginning of summer full of vacations, bbq's, and long days. Be sure to be water wise and give your fur friends lots of water and shade!!!

EVENTS AND MY NEWS FLASHES

"FUR SHUI®"

"Fur Shui"™ An Introduction to Animal Feng Shui.

The Tour de Fur is now officially over. So, I am sending out to all of you who still are hanging onto the book to please send it back to me ASAP! Want to enjoy all the signatures and treasure the time little Fur Shui has been traveling...and need to decide on the big winner of the tour and announce that soon! To finish off the tour...I went on Tour to Italy. The book is doing great overseas and I found it in all sorts of book stores from Milan to Rome...even in tiny Orvieto! So, the final tour photos will be posted on the blog from my wonderful tour of Italy. What a great way to celebrate the success of Fur Shui! Check out the blog at: <http://furshui.blogspot.com>

WHERE?

Love Florence!!! Hard to leave Rome. That's the Pope in the 2nd window blessing the book!

Speak has been very quiet lately...due to my schedule and travels. Visited Italy to see the book in all the "libraries" and to say hello to my publisher in Milan. Was a wonderful trip with both fair and cloudy skies. Italy is just lovely, the people, the food, the art are so very great. My best treat was to see my very special friend and fellow animal communicator in Milan;

Ida! A great time was had from Milan, Venice, Burano, walking about in all sorts of neat small cities in Tuscany, the Cinque Terre, the Italian countryside, Florence, Pisa, and finally Rome (hey, the Pope even "blessed" the book!).

Found my book all around Italy in both large and small bookstores called "libraries".

Ciao and grazie mille for all that are helping Fur Shui to be such a success. I am so grateful!!!

WHO, HOW AND WHAT?

A reminder to please drive slow, watch out for wild fur friends...

My friend Judy M just sent me a photo of two little skunk babies who her friend Irene has come to the rescue. Keeping it all in the wild...these two are the remainder of 4 little ones who just as they were being weaned, had their mom killed by a car. Irene followed Project Wildlife's suggestion to feed the survivors with mashed up cat kibble, milk, and canned cat food. They are growing up in the wild as they should thanks to Irene. We have so few areas left for wild fur folk, I am grateful for Irene's efforts and courage to help the little ones. Before helping any wild animal, please do call your local Wildlife protection agency to find out how you can help an animal and let it remain in it's wild environment if at all possible.

FOUND! Tips: Two great products for "odor and soil control"

No, not the two little skunks above...but two great products that I received from the recent Go Green Expo in LA. Having a very "temperamental" cat at home as well as hearing from all of you of your pet's ever so often "mistakes"...I just love these two products! Tried them personally and can not say enough about these. BOTH are natural based!

Begley's Best, Pet and household Odor and Stain Remover. This really knocks out all the "invisible" scent that animals like to go back to. AND, it is good with removing other household stains too! Works on tile, carpet, fabric and even woodwork!! Go to www.begleysbest.com

Naturally it's Clean, by Enzyme Fresh Home...Carpet stain and odors This product really takes the odor out of "mistakes" on Carpet and leaves quite a fresh scent behind. My cat that passed away from Renal Failure just could not make it to the kitty box as his disease progressed and this product has finally removed all the faint "attraction" odor that my other cat has been attracted to to mark and "revisit". After using this product in my place, I have no problems...makes me (and Rocky cat) happy for sure! Go to: www.NaturallyitsClean.com

A good Fur Shui tip for the beginning of summer.

It is the start of warmer weather...so keep the water flowing. Give your pooch a big stainless steel bowl of fresh water right at the door to slurp up coming and going...the FRONT door is the career gua, the color is black and the element is water. Wash your pet in the front yard and see if the energy there is of help to both of you! You can also dip a black cotton kerchief in a bit of cool water and tie it loosely around your dog's neck to keep him cool and comfy during the heat. And, give him a little healthy treat from a clear plastic jar with a black lid right as he or she greets you coming in the door from a long day at work. It will give your career an energy boost as well as reward your fur folk for doing their job of greeting you so very well!

Happy trails to you this summer season!
