WHERE?

May was full of wonders with swimming with the Spinner Dolphins during the day and snorkeling above 16 ft. wing spanned Manta Rays at night with Sunlight on Water crews from Kona, Hawaii. Lessons of “ohana”, “aloha” and “mahalo” all come from conversations with the dolphin family. Being able to swim with the dolphins and Mantas in the wild gives these creatures respect for their “ohana” as well as giving them the choice to asking you to be part of their special family.

Hawaiian “aloha” was shown to me with wonderful book talks and signings in Kona and Captain Cook’s. Kona host was at “Sacred Fire”...thanks Leilani! Special time was spent at Brenda and Joy’s “Kona Stories” with folks and two cats, Barnes and Nobles. Mahalo for the lovely flower lei!

June was busy with Fur Shui taping for CBS and book talks around Southern CA. Many thanks for the beautiful company and homes of Jean B. and the Loseke family, was such fun to see us all on CBS, The Early Show! Here’s to the new Stars: Murphy the dog and Jean’s 6 Borzoi!

WHO, HOW AND WHAT?

Summer pups are here!

Thanks to Kimberlee B. for sending in such a cute shot. Her dog Teeka had her babies on June 14, 1 female and three males! Congrats! Send in your “new comers” for me to share.

A good “warning” about Xylitol from the folks at The Honest Kitchen.

Did you know that Xylitol, a sugar substitute (artificial sweetener) that’s found in chewing gum, hard candy, gum drops, sugar-free pudding, jello, diabetic foods, baked goods and toothpaste, can be fatal to pets?

To keep your pets safe from this harmful substance, please keep foods containing Xylitol, well out of their reach. It could save their lives. Even a very small amount of Xylitol can be potentially life-threatening.

Xylitol causes mass insulin release in dogs, leading to sudden hypoglycemia, a drop in blood sugar levels. Dogs can show symptoms in as little as 20 minutes, or as late as 12 hours. Symptoms include ataxia (staggering gait), depression, lethargy, confusion, seizures & in some cases, death.

If you suspect your pet has eaten a food or candy containing Xylitol, call your local emergency vet immediately to let them know you’re on your way, and go straight there for urgent treatment. You can also call the ASPCA Animal Poison Control Center for advice, on (888) 426-4435 but it is crucial not to delay medical attention because of the very sudden effects of consumption.

Have a fun “Fur Shui” summer...tips for your play with kitties!

Fur Shui Tip for extra fun...find the creativity/children “gua” in your home and put those feather toys to use!

Go to: www.furshui.com

“Keep your cat fit and happy with these toy choices. You’ll both have fun playing!”

“Toys are a great way to keep your cat entertained, but with so many on the market, how do you know which to pick?...Feather Toys? Feather toys keep cats busy and require owner participation. There are a variety of these popular feather teasers and wands available at pet supply stores and online. Just be sure to put them away when you are done, so the cat will not eat the feathers, says Charles Koenig, DVM, of the Limerick Veterinary Hospital in Pennsylvania.”
